Nature Makerspace Experiences at the Nature Center in Heritage Park September thru December

Head to the Farmington Hills Nature Center for the “Nature Makerspace Experience” and find out why the Makerspace Movement is making waves in education! Experience how the Nature Center is becoming a hub for young scientists and engineers to dream, plan, invent, and imagine. Participants will design and create using nature as an inspiration to solve STEM challenges.

The Nature Center Makerspace Experiences will be held on the following dates:

- Saturday, October 16: 10 - 11 a.m. - Insects
- Thursday, October 21: 5 - 6 p.m. - Insects
- Thursday, November 18: 5 - 6 p.m. - Wind
- Saturday, November 20: 10 - 11 a.m. - Wind
- Thursday, December 16: 5 - 6 p.m. - Art
- Saturday, December 18: 10 - 11 a.m. - Art

The program is for ages 6 to 12. Activities involve the whole family in creative fun! Children must be accompanied by an adult. The fee is $2 per child. Space is limited, registration is encouraged at <https://recreg.fhgov.com> or in person at The Hawk - Farmington Hills Community Center located at 29995 Twelve Mile Road.

Heritage Park is located at 24915 Farmington Road, between 10 and 11 Mile Roads. Call the Nature Center at 248-477-1135 or email asmith@fhgov.com for more information about upcoming Nature Center programs.
