City of Farmington Hills Seeks New Members for Boards and Commissions

Are you looking for an opportunity to get involved in your community and make a difference? The City of Farmington Hills is seeking volunteers to serve on its various Boards and Commissions.

Descriptions of each Board or Commission can be found on the City website under the Government tab at <https://www.fhgov.com/Government/Boards-Commissions.aspx>. Residency requirements vary.

Several Boards and Commissions currently have vacancies for members and alternates, who serve when members are unable to attend meetings. Please consider volunteering for one of the following available positions:

- Arts Commission (one member and one alternate)
- Beautification Commission (one member and two alternates)
- Brownfield Redevelopment Authority (one member)
- Commission on Aging (one alternate)
- Commission on Children, Youth and Families (one member)
- Committee to Increase Voter Participation (three members and two alternates)
- Economic Development Corporation (one member)
- Emergency Preparedness Commission (one member and one alternate)
- Grand River Corridor Improvement Authority (two members; you must be a resident or business owner in that area)
- Historic District Commission (one member)
- Zoning Board of Appeals (two alternates)

Anyone interested in serving the community should submit a letter of interest with the name of the specific Board or Commission, along with a resume, to CMO@fhgov.com. All submissions will be reviewed by the Mayor, who then officially nominates Boards and Commissions members following City Council approval.

If you are interested in serving on a Board or Commission but it doesn't currently fit into your schedule, you are welcome to submit a letter of interest to be added to a list for future consideration.
