

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Lauracindy Plague Dávila
Communications Manager
lplaguedavila@fhgov.com
248-871-2509 (office)

City of Farmington Hills, Farmington Area Arts Commission Seek Nominations for 2026-2027 Art Awards

Nominations for the annual awards program, which honors the contributions of artists, businesses and organizations, are open through March 2

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich. (Jan. 30, 2026) – The City of Farmington Hills Cultural Arts Division and the Farmington Area Arts Commission (FAAC) are seeking nominations for the annual Farmington Area Art Awards to honor the contribution of local artists in the community. The awards program will recognize contributions of individuals, community organizations and businesses to the arts. Nominations can be submitted through the online nomination form through Monday, March 2. Winners will be recognized in the fall.

“The City of Farmington Hills is a community that greatly values the contributions of artists,” said Rachel Timlin, cultural arts supervisor for the City of Farmington Hills Special Services Department. “This awards program allows the City to formally thank artists for helping to keep the community vibrant, colorful and creative.”

The Farmington Hills and Farmington communities are home to many accomplished and budding artists, cultural organizations, events, and successful cultural programs. Through this awards program, the community can recognize talented individuals in visual art, drama, dance, literature, music, photography, film, music and more.

Nominations are being accepted for:

- The 2026-2027 Farmington Area Artist-in-Residence, which has been awarded since 1976 to individuals who display exceptional talent and artistic accomplishments. Nominees must currently reside in Farmington Hills or Farmington and will work with the City’s Cultural Arts Division to showcase their art throughout the year.
- The Nancy Coumoundouros Distinguished Service to the Arts Award, which recognizes outstanding service to the community in the arts by an individual residing in Farmington or Farmington Hills.
- Additional awards include the Arts Advocacy Award, recognizing outstanding service to the community by a business or organization, the Youth Art Awards to acknowledge talented student artists, and the Arts Volunteer of the Year Award, which honors an individual who generously dedicates their time and creativity to the community.

The City of Farmington Hills has the largest dedicated municipal Cultural Arts Division in the State of Michigan. The Division coordinates arts programming for the Farmington Hills community and beyond, including classes, events, and activities in visual and performing arts, and year-round performances at The Hawk Theatre, to expose diverse populations to the arts. The City’s Cultural Arts Division also works to empower makers of all ages and abilities in The Hawk Makerspace, an immersive facility that allows makers to access a variety of state-of-the-art tools and equipment, as well as a creative community with a wealth of resources and knowledge, to grow a hobby or skill, from sewing to woodworking and more.

The FAAC supports efforts to ensure that arts and cultural heritage are integral components of daily life in Farmington Hills and Farmington. The FAAC is committed to arts promotion and advocacy and serves as a conduit between local government and the arts community. Established in 1976, the Commission consists of individuals appointed by the Farmington Hills and Farmington City Councils. Recent winners of the Artist in Residence Award include Sean Deason (2025-2026), Debbie Lim (2024-2025) and Mark Boyd (2023-2024). A complete list of past recipients dating back to 1976 is available on the City's website.

For more information, contact the City of Farmington Hills Cultural Arts Division at 248-699-6700.

###

About the City of Farmington Hills

The City of Farmington Hills is a place where everyone is welcome. Founded in 1973, it is one of the largest communities in Oakland County. Farmington Hills is home to more than 83,000 residents who speak more than 60 languages, and more than 75 Fortune 500 businesses, including multinational corporations like Nissan and Bosch. The City is routinely recognized as one of the safest cities of its size and is known for its extensive amenities, including over 600 acres of parks, 90 athletic fields, six miles of hiking and walking trails, the Farmington Hills Golf Club, and an Ice Arena. Farmington Hills is also home to The Hawk, an award-winning, approximately 270,000-square-foot recreation and arts venue, which includes The Hawk Theatre and The Hawk Makerspace. For more information, visit www.fhgov.com.

31555 West Eleven Mile Road • Farmington Hills, MI 48336 • 248.871.2500 Phone • 248.871.2501 Fax
Follow the City on Facebook • Subscribe to the eNews • Sign Up for FH ALERTS

Note for reporters: Although the Cities of Farmington Hills and Farmington share similar names and are both communities in Oakland County, they are two distinct and separate cities. Farmington Hills is the larger of the two, both in population and size. Farmington is a historic city with its own unique governance and community. Please be sure to differentiate between the two cities in your reporting to avoid confusion.